

For three days he stayed in the fish's belly, praying. God heard Jonah's prayers, and guided the fish toward land. It coughed, and Jonah popped out! He was wet and frightened, but alive!

A terrible storm came up and the ship almost sank. "It's my fault," said Jonah. "Throw me over the side." The sailors did so and Jonah sank like a stone. Instead of drowning, Jonah was swallowed by a big fish.

Jonah and the Big Fish

Book of Jonah

God spoke to Jonah once more. This time, when God told Jonah to go to Nineveh, Jonah went! And the people of Nineveh got God's message.

One day God told Jonah, "Go to Nineveh and tell the people to obey My laws or I will be angry." Jonah didn't want to go. He decided to hide from God. Jonah hopped on a ship that was sailing away from Nineveh.
